ALMA MATER

Churchland High,
Through all the ages
We will loyal be.
By Thy guidance, we shall prosper,

And our faith in thee,
Strong in spirit
Striving forward
We as students stand.

Hail to thee, Oh Churchland High School
Best in all the land.

Foreword . . .

We present this The 1950 Trucker to you, our folks, friends, and students, in the hope that you may learn of and remember some of the happiness and spirit of the days spent at Churchland High School. We have endeavored to make this a representative book of our school year, by incorporating within its pages fact and fancy, and fun.

As you look over this issue now, and in the years to come, it is our sincere wish that you may find what will suggest to you the happiest of memories.

Dedication

Best wishes,
Gracie Lee VanDyck

For her willingness to help others, for her never ending efforts to make Churchland High a better place, and to make us a better class, WE, the SENIORS of 1950 lovingly dedicate this, our 1950 TRUCKER to Miss Gracie Lee Van Dyck, in hopes that it will help to express to her how much we mean

"Thank You, Gracie"

Class Song

To the tune of "I'll Be Seeing You"

Dear Old Churchland High
The time has come to say "Goodbye"
With memories of foregone years
We'll miss you so.
In the crowded halls
The class when roll is called
The friends we've made and all
The things we've learned
For you we'll yearn.
Through the help we've had
From teachers who were glad to do
The most they could to help us through
Our gratitude may we express
And know that in our happiness
We always will be true
To our Alma Mater dear
We sigh farewell to you.

Senior Class Prophecy

We Predict:

That Dorothy Adams and Shirley Crawford will become stars for the University of Virginia basketball team.

That Mary Bowling will catch Ronald Wilkie in the year 1974.

That Billy Burks will become a well known minister and will hold services in a pup-tent in his back yard.

That Troy Carter will star on the "All-America Redheads" basketball team.

That Sanford Chapman will become conductor of the little choo-choo train in Ocean View Amusement Park.

That Clarence Collins will become a tree surgeon in a desert.

That Joe Cotton will reduce to 99 pounds by 1986.

That Bobby Cullen will become a famous detective who is continually looking for girls.

That Helen Dail will supervise the Goo-Goo Kindergarten School.

That Lucille Garrenton will become an old maid.

That Jackie Graham will become "Miss Five-by-Five" of 1960.

That Nancy Gilbert will become a great banjo player.

That Margeurite Grant will become a famous cartoonist in the New York Times.

That Horace Guynn will become supervisor of the Hadacol Manufacturing Company, with Loraine Harrison as his assistant.

That James Hall will become the second Einstein!

That Ruby Harris and William Jean will become a well known comedy team on the radio.

That Joyce Hathaway and Lottie Hudson will become stars on the radio program "It Pays To Be Ignorant."

That John Holland will become a banker, so he can pay all of his debts.

That Donald King will become a Bum!

That Billy Koon will invent a beverage containing pure alcohol.

That Doris Kowalski will be sent abroad on research work to see what effect the onion has on the eyes.

That Lerline Lemoine and Ann Mangum will be the team Irma and Jane on the program "My Friend Irma."

That Harry Lovett will become the author of a very famous book entitled "How To Get Out Of High School."

That Mary Ellen Moody will be a famous milk-taster in the Pine Grove Dairy.

That Donnie Pierce will become the star on "The Quiz Kids."

That Janet Robinson will become a sports announcer on station N-U-T-S in Williamsburg.

That Bill Smith will become a monkey—a grease monkey, that is.

That Carol Thomas will become a famous hill-billy singer.

That James Troutman will become Admiral of the United States Army.

That Marion Vaughan will probably talk herself to death at an early age.

That Homer Vineyard will specialize in raising pigeons and grapes.

That Billy Walters will conduct the "Mule Train."

That Betty Whitaker will become a physical education teacher. The main exercise in her class is chewing bubble gum.

That Billy Williams will become the second Professor Stoopnagle.

That Joyce Williams will become a man-hater.

That Jean Young will become an outstanding model of dungarees and plaid shirts.

That Elsie Young will become a great Shakespearian actor.

With these predictions coming straight from our crystal ball, we give them to you, the Seniors and to your friends, with the hopes that you will endeavor to live up to the brilliant futures which have been seen for the very outstanding class of 1950.

Last Will and Testament

We the Senior Class of Churchland High School, being of sound mind and body, do declare this to be our last will and testament, making null and void all former wills made by us.

We do hereby state that all our debts and expenses be paid by our executor who is herein named:

We make the following bequests:

Item One: To the Juniors, we leave our never ceasing struggle to survive through the dreadful tragedy of Macbeth.

Item Two: To the Sophomores, we bequeath our ever flowing fountain of knowledge which we, as Seniors, have never found time to exploit to its fullest extent.

Item Three: To the Freshman, we leave the great dignity and unsurpassed wisdom collected by us during our sojourn (C Page 2391 Webster's Unabridged Dictionary) at Churchland High. Use it carefully, kids, it's our most cherished possession

Item Four: To the faculty, we leave peace and quiet, which will come with our departure.

Item Five: I, Bobby Cullen, leave the headaches of the SCA to any poor sucker who is unlucky enough to receive it.

Item Six: I, Helen Dail, leave to Barbara Figart my flare for acting discovered by Miss Gracie Lee Van Dyck when she cast me as "Effie."

Item Seven: I, Lottie Hudson, bequeath my small waist to Betty Huffington and my natural blonde hair to Jean Skidmore.

Item Eight: I, Janet Robinson, leave to the school my big brother, Rocky.

Item Nine: I, Sanford Chapman, leave my "classroom insomia" to Ernie Floyd.

Item Ten: I, Marion Vaughan, leave my shy and quiet nature to Margaret Patterson with the fond hopes that it may be used by her someday in the near future.

Item Eleven: I, John Everett Holland, leave my "persecution complex" to John Kirchmier in hopes that he will carry it on.

Item Twelve: I, Elsie Young, leave my history notes to Gene Garthwright. I also leave to him my power of comprehension in order that he may read and understand them.

Item Thirteen: I, Billy Williams, leave all my knowledge of leading the band to Patsy Bush.

Item Fourteen: I, Betty Whittaker, leave to Martha, my sister, my able brain to be used to maintain the high scholastic average established in this school by the Whittaker family.

Item Fifteen: I, Billy Walters, leave all my "love" for Mr. Pawlowski to Bill Lane.

Item Sixteen: I, Lorraine Harrison, leave my ability to make good grades in Chemistry to my sister, Charlotte.

Item Seventeen: I, James Hall, leave my great ability of being pest and baby to James Deaton.

Item Eighteen: I, Mary Lois Bowling, leave to Miss Gibbs, the wonderful thought that she will never have another Bowling as librarian 6th period.

Item Nineteen: I, Ronald E. Wilkie, leave to the freshman boys my backwardness and my ability to be bashful around the girls.

Item Twenty: I, Lerline Lemoine, leave to the students of Churchland High School my ability to keep quiet in the halls and in class.

Last Will and Testament—Continued

Item Twenty-One: I, Troy Carter, leave to Ronnie Collier, my ability to be a successful quarterback.

Item Twenty-Two: I, Carol Thomas, leave my ability to carry a tune, to Tommy Hall in hopes that he will sing sweet melodies wisely and wish him in 1952 the best of luck.

Item Twenty-Three: I, Billy Koon, leave to Churchland High the rambling wreck of '49 (Bus No. 66) and the wish for mercy on the next driver.

Item Twenty-Four: We, the gang of Lunch table No. 4, realize it is the usual rule to leave ability and knowledge to some member of the incoming class, but contrary to custom, we feel, we would like to take with us the wisdom of one Betty Reynolds.

Item Twenty-Five: I, Marguerite Grant, leave my good conduct grades to Louis Slade in hopes that he will live up to them.

Item Twenty-Six: I, Mary Ellen Moody, leave my history grades to Margaret Vann.

Item Twenty-Seven: I, Jean Ann Young, leave my ability to be lazy and get away with it to Hommie Manning, in hopes that he will carry it through.

Item Twenty-Eight: I, Dot Adams, leave my desk that sits so hard to some unfortunate junior.

Item Twenty-Nine: I, Ann Mangum, leave to Nancy Madison all the responsibilities and hard work of keeping Tommy Hall quiet in the library.

Item Thirty: I, Harry (Boy) Lovett, leave my bubble gum to Gene Skinner in hopes that he will make good use of it.

Item Thirty-One: I, Joyce Upton Hathaway, leave some of my feminine appeal to "Daniel Boone."

Item Thirty-Two: I, Doris Lee Kowalski, leave my "empty head" to Lake Westfall, in hopes that he will use it as I did.

Item Thirty-Three: I, Jackie Graham, leave to Patsy Taylor my slimness.

Item Thirty-Four: To the school, we of the Senior Class, leave our excellent example as students.

We nominate and appoint Miss Gracie Lee Van Dyck to be the executrix of this, our last will and testament, with full authority to carry out all its provisions to the utmost effect.

In testimony whereof, we have set our hands and seal this first day of June, A. D. 1950.

(Signed) Class of 1950

Signed, sealed, published, and declared by the above-named Class of 1950 as their last will and testament in the presence of us who have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses at their request, in the presence of the said testatrix and of each other.

Norfolk County Champions

The Churchland Truckers for their second straight season conquered the Norfolk County Championship, winning five of the seven games played.. The only conference game loss was to the Suffolk Red Raiders, which placed us second in conference games. However, it was one of the best seasons the Truckers have had. The most outstanding game was against Kempsville, in which the Truckers scored forty-two points, the most they have ever scored against any team!

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

The Churchland Girls started off the 1949-50 season with four returning lettermen. The spirits were high for the much improved team.

The girls' basketball team ended this season with an outstanding record, having won ten games and lost seven.

The team will suffer a great loss when three of our most outstanding players graduate. They are Shirley Crawford, Joyce Hathaway, and Dot Adams. But with these losses, the team is expected to be more successful next year, since this year's squad was composed of many underclassmen who have shown great promise.

"Best of Wishes in all the years to come." Jackie

I Wonder

Why John Holland and James Link like to change the subject in history class.

Why Bobby Cullen isn't going steady.

Why Harry Lovett dislikes himself.

Why Troy Carter doesn't grow.

Why Horace Guynn is so crazy.

Why Shirley Crawford coughs so much.

Why Donald King and Nancy Gilbert are so smart.

Why the Senior Class is so brilliant.

Why Miss Massey sits on the edge of her desk.

Why Skinner doesn't give Shirley Barker another chance.

Why Jackie Graham doesn't reduce.

Why Miss Bishop calls the seniors "Students".

Why Betty Huffington combs her hair so much.

Why Mary Vaughan is so quiet.

Why we don't have escalators.

Why Joyce Hathaway sneaks in journalism class every third period.

Why the seniors never carry any books home except English.
